The Shopping Guide - Discover the best shopping in Nerja

NERJA SHOPPING GUIDE

In this guide, I'll take you on a journey through the best shopping spots Nerja has to offer, beginning with the essentials. First, we'll explore the various supermarkets, providing you with options for everyday grocery needs, whether you're looking for international brands or local Spanish favorites. From large chains to smaller, independent stores, there's something for everyone.

Next, we'll dive into miscellaneous stores, where you can find everything from household goods and clothing to unique gifts and playful accessories. These are the perfect places to pick up anything you might need for your home or an interesting find during your visit.

Moving on, I'll guide you through the heart of Nerja's fashion scene, where attractive boutiques and well-known brand stores await. Whether you're after stylish clothing or a one-of-a-kind accessory, you'll find plenty of options here.

For those in search of an all-day shopping experience, we'll introduce you to the larger shopping malls and outlets nearby, offering everything from luxury brands to family-friendly entertainment. And finally, we'll cover specialty shops and DIY & hardware stores for those looking to furnish their home, take on a renovation project, or find something truly specific.

Each section is designed to guide you through the essentials of shopping in Nerja and beyond, ensuring you don't miss any hidden gems along the way.

I hope you enjoy this guide and if you do, remember to check all the other Guides and Tips on my web page www.nerjawithsanna.com

Nerja's main shopping street, Calle Pintada, is lined with a mix of chain stores and independent boutiques

SUPERMARKETS

Lidl

A popular supermarket chain, Lidl in Nerja offers a familiar selection of products available worldwide. One of its main attractions is the themed weeks, where you can find products from different countries or special themes, such as Halloween, Easter, and Christmas. If you're looking for something specific or seasonal, Lidl is a great stop.

Aldi

Conveniently located just across the road from Lidl, Aldi is another great option for grocery shopping. Recently opened in spring, this store carries a range of exclusive brands as well as well-known international names like Trader Joe's, making it a unique choice for both locals and tourists. They also have a large parking garage directly below, which is especially nice during the summer time.

Mercadona

The pride of the Spanish supermarket scene, Mercadona originates from Valencia and boasts 1,637 stores across the country. In Nerja, you'll find two locations. The central store has a hot food section offering freshly made meals like grilled chicken and hamburgers. There's also a corner with microwaves and seating where you can eat the food you've purchased. Known for its competitive prices, Mercadona is especially praised for its high-quality yet affordable cosmetic products. Parking in the city center location, however, can be quite tight while their other location right next to Capistrano Village offers plenty of space.

NERJA MARKET: A TALE OF TWO EXPERIENCES

One of Nerja's most beloved local attractions is its bustling market, held twice a week, each day offering a unique shopping experience. Whether you're a foodie searching for fresh, local produce or a treasure hunter looking for second-hand gems, the Nerja Market is a must-visit during your stay.

Location on Google Maps: <https://maps.app.goo.gl/j87CVGh1UGzULep7>

Tuesday Market: Fresh, Local Products

On Tuesdays, the market transforms into a vibrant hub where local farmers and producers showcase their fresh fruits, vegetables, and other artisanal goods. This is the perfect spot to stock up on high-quality, seasonal produce, straight from the growers. You'll also find an array of local products, including cheeses, olives, breads, and other regional delicacies, all offered at reasonable prices. It's not only a chance to support local businesses but also a wonderful way to experience the flavors of Andalusia. Many locals do part of their weekly grocery shopping here, and it's a great opportunity to immerse yourself in the community. There are also lots of clothes, shoes, bags, toys and household items, for example.

Sunday Market: Second-Hand Treasures

Sunday, on the other hand, is all about finding hidden treasures. The market becomes a large open-air flea market, filled with second-hand items, antiques, and curiosities. Whether you're hunting for vintage furniture, clothing, or unique décor items, this is the place to be. There's always an eclectic mix of goods on offer, from books and records to household items and collectibles, and bargaining is part of the fun. It's a fantastic stop for those seeking something different or simply enjoying a leisurely Sunday of browsing.

Both markets take place in the same location in Almirajara, and each of them provides its own unique charm and character, making them a vital part of Nerja's local culture. Whether you're after the freshest products or a one-of-a-kind second-hand find, Nerja Market won't disappoint.
